

Text: Matthew 19:13-20:34

Topic: Growth, Freedom

Big Idea of the Message: We break free the pull of this world by having a heart that is open and receptive like a child, surrendering our wants, wanting God's generosity to be lavished on others and serving rather than being served.

Discussion Questions:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. What is the difference between childlike faith and simply being immature in your faith? How can childlike faith exist alongside a diligent and disciplined pursuit of God and His Word?
3. In Matthew 19:16-22, was Jesus calling the rich man to earn his salvation by obedience and sacrificial giving? Explain.
4. What does the parable of the workers in a vineyard teach us about God's grace?
5. Do you desire God's generosity to be poured out others? How do you respond when others are doing "better" than you?
6. How does the misguided approach of the disciples beginning in Matthew 20:20 parallel your own approach to God and the Christian life?
